

LOCAL ROUNDUP

Draves swims to 13th place at nationals

By Mercury Staff
sports@pottsmmerc.com

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Shannon Draves highlighted the recent showing by the Pottstown YMCA in the National Short Course Swimming and Diving Championships.

Draves placed 13th in the 200 butterfly with a time of 2:03.31. She also swam legs of the girls' 200 free relay, which placed 44th (1:40.48), and the 400 medley relay, which placed 30th (3:59.00).

Draves was joined on the 200 free relay by Lindsey Marcheskie, Melissa Cook, and Rachel ley team by Jamie Kane, Cook, and Gadzicki. Other girls competing for Pottstown were Jamie Kane in the 100 breast (36th, 1:06.71) and Amanda Pfizer in the 100 breast.

On the boys' side, Billy Draves placed 22nd in the "C" finals of the 200 fly (1:25.56). Draves also teamed up with Alex Bauer, Matt Bauer, and John Hauser for a 36th in the 200 free relay (1:29.25).

For the Main Line YMCA, Megan Happ was 16th in the girls' 1650 (7:11.44) and Erin Seiler 88th in the 100 fly (59.89). Andrew Seiler had a 19th in the 100 breast (58.92) earlier in the day.

